Note: -

1. Public Mutual reserves the right, at its sole and absolute discretion, to amend, change, modify, vary, withdraw, and/or terminate, at any time, any or all of the above benefits and/or privileges, either generally or specifically (i.e., to all investors or any particular investor, class or group of investors), without prior notice and without the obligation to provide any reasons. Public Mutual also reserves the right to introduce, impose and/or substitute new terms and conditions, as well as to set aside, vary, amend, suspend, waive and/or delete any existing terms and conditions related to the benefits and/or privileges stipulated herein.
2. Any birthday gifts, year-end gifts, onboarding gifts, and anniversary gifts are subject to change or replacement based on availability. Gifts are sent solely at the discretion of Public Mutual as a goodwill gesture. Gift eligibility and entitlement shall be determined at the sole discretion of Public Mutual and Public Mutual reserves the right to change or replace the gifts from time to time without prior notice.
3. Gift will be delivered to the member's registered address within Malaysia in Public Mutual's records. Members are responsible for ensuring that their mailing address and contact details are accurate and up to date; any changes must be promptly notified to Public Mutual.
4. Gift delivery will be handled by a third-party courier service provider. By providing their mailing address and contact numbers, Members agree to Public Mutual sharing these details with the delivery company solely for the purpose of sending the gift.
5. The Member(s) shall no longer be eligible to enjoy the benefits and/or privileges following the withdrawal and/or termination of the exclusive privileges and services by Public Mutual.
6. Mutual Gold, Mutual Elite and Mutual Signature Member(s) whose MGQPs fall below the minimum requirement for their respective membership status will be granted a 90-days grace period to make up the shortfall by investing in units allotted with MGQPs (Member(s) may refer to "simple ways to earn your privileges" for more details). During this grace period, Public Mutual has the discretion to continue or suspend any of the benefits or privileges until the Member regains their qualifying status. Member(s) may not be eligible to enjoy any benefits or privileges if the requisite MGQPs are not met.

7. The benefits and/or privileges are exclusively for the Member(s), non-transferable and cannot be exchanged for up-front cash or credit of any kind, whether in part or in full.
8. The Member(s) shall not hold Public Mutual responsible for any loss or damage incurred, whether directly or indirectly, arising from, or in connection with any benefits and/or privileges, regardless of the reason.
9. Member(s) shall indemnify Public Mutual against any claims, losses, damages, costs, liabilities or expenses that Public Mutual may sustain or suffer in relation to or arising out of or in connection with Public Mutual's Exclusive Benefits and Privileges and Services.
10. Force Majeure – If, by reason of force majeure, rendering Public Mutual unable to fulfill its obligations, either wholly or partly, under these terms and conditions, circumstances of which may include but are not limited to:
 - (a) Malfunction or failure of equipment, systems or transmission links;
 - (b) Incidents such as fire, earthquake, flood, explosion, acts of elements, acts of God, acts of terrorism, declared or undeclared war, accidents, epidemics, pandemics, strikes, lockouts, labour disputes, embargoes, riots, civil disturbances and/or tsunami;
 - (c) Disruptions or failure of telecommunications, Internet, electricity, water or fuel supply; or
 - (d) Any other unforeseen events beyond Public Mutual's reasonable control that prevent Public Mutual from fulfilling its obligations under these terms and conditions.

Public Mutual shall not be liable for any delays, losses, damages or inconvenience caused to and/or suffered by the Member(s) as a result of its non-performance of the obligations stated in these terms and conditions.
11. The use of the benefits and/or privileges stipulated herein shall be deemed as acceptance of these terms and conditions by the Member(s). Information and updates relating to the comprehensive list of services, benefits, privileges, and terms and conditions can be obtained from Public Mutual's website at www.publicmutual.com.my.
