KEY RISKS

What are the key risks associated with this product?

Market risk	Market risk refers to the possibility that an investment will lose value because of a general decline in financial markets, due to economic, political and/or other factors, which will result in a decline in the fund's NAV.
Specific security risk	Prices of a particular security may fluctuate in response to the circumstances affecting individual companies. As such, adverse price movements of a particular security invested by the fund may adversely affect the fund's NAV and unit price.
Liquidity risk	Liquidity risk refers to the ease of liquidating an asset depending on the asset's volume traded in the market. If the fund holds assets that are illiquid, or are difficult to dispose of, the value of the fund will be negatively affected when it has to sell such assets at unfavourable prices.

You are advised to read the fund's prospectus and understand the risks involved and, if necessary, consult your professional adviser(s) before investing.

1-Year Fund Performance Review

PBDBEF registered a total return of +12.65% for the financial year ended 31 January 2025 in comparison to its benchmark's return of +5.95% over the same period.

Notes:

* The figure shown is for the period since the fund's commencement (20 July 2015).

 The benchmark of the fund is a composite index of 90% FTSE Bursa Malaysia Top 100 Index and 10% 3-Month Kuala Lumpur Interbank Offered Rate.

The calculation of the above returns is based on NAV-to-NAV basis, and is sourced from Lipper.

Average annual returns of the fund are derived by dividing the total returns of the fund with the number of years under review.

Commencement date is the last day of the initial offer period.
